Commander's Message

Hello Fellow Legionnaires of Susquehanna Post 135:

First, I would like to welcome all new members to the Post and pass along our warmest regards to the families that have lost loved ones this past year. We are here to help and to take care of veterans in need so feel free to contact us at any time.

We welcome visitors and guests to stop by our Post and introduce themselves as we are always ready to recruit new members to our Legion Family. Remember, a successful Post is an active Post and we need all your help to keep Susquehanna Post 135 successful. Don't forget that we are an organization of veterans helping veterans so if you know of someone needing assistance, let us know and our Service Officer, Skip Ivie, will be glad to help.

I hope each of you celebrated the start of 2018 in good spirits with family and friends. Although New Year's can be a time of celebration and cheer, there are many veterans who are facing difficult circumstances; they may be entering this time of year with apprehension or anxiety as many challenges present themselves along the way, some of them very difficult to deal with, so please reach out and let them know you care and if you can let a post officer know, we'll be glad to help assist.

So, before signing off, please remember to sign up and start receiving your newsletter by email, which saves the Post the cost of printing, mailing and time. You may send an email to post135@verizon.net to sign up for the email version of the newsletter. Please provide your full name, email address and phone number.

God Bless America,

Terry W. Marrs

Terry W. Marrs
Commander, Susquehanna Post 135
